Dear Keith,

On behalf of our customers, our authors and my colleagues here at HarperCollins, I would like to thank you for your wonderful workmanship when it comes to special and customized editions of our books. From slip-cases to corporate logos in gold foil on jackets, we appreciate your special attention to detail, your pricing and your ability to meet our deadlines.

Thank you so much for your help with so many projects over the past three years.

Yours truly,

Tom Best
Vice President, International Sales & Special Markets
